Building Permanent Roadway On Depot Street—Personal and Local Happenings

The work of making permanent road on Depot street has already begun, the crossings have been taken out and the street is torn up to some extent. J. A. McLean of Augusta, Maine, is doing the work. The men are now laying new water pipes in some places, after which they will proceed to lay the large sewer pipes, which have already been brought from the river across the Darling meadow. After this the work of laying the permanent road will begin and it is expected to be completed in about six weeks.

Miss Marion Shattuck was sick last week.

W. L. Guild has been confined to the house by a rheumatic trouble for several days.

Mr. Bradford, who has been principal of Lyndon Institute for the past two years, has a position this year as principal of Lincoln Academy, Newcastle, Me.

Of the new teachers in the graded school, Miss Leila Barber is boarding at J. S. Butler's, Miss Daisy Barber and Miss Ila Batchelder at A. A. Barber's.

Miss Marion Wilson, who gave an entertainment in Music Hall last week Monday evening, rendered most successfully a unique and interesting program. It was unfortunate that so small an audience was present. Her program included the characters in costume, so various as the Colonial girl at her spinning wheel, a wood nymph, a "po' white" Southern woman, and a city boot-black from the bowery. The musical numbers in the program were very delightfully rendered by Mrs. Harry Colby and Miss Ila Batchelder in piano duets, and Mrs. B. G. Morrison in soprano solos, with violin obligato by Charles Colby. The entertainment was given by the Universal Ladies' Aid society.

Mrs. Charles Raife of Victory visited her cousin, H. L. Parker, last week.

Miss Edna Goss, a trained nurse, is caring for W. L. Guild, who is confined to the bed by illness.

The first meeting of the Lyndon Union club for the year will be held next Thursday, Sept. 26, in the Cable Hall. The speaker is to be Dr. Grace Sherwood of St. Albans. It is expected that the year books will be ready for distribution at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis of Barton called on his brother, Dr. F. H. Davis and wife last week.

The two little sons of Harvey Trefort, whose mother died last week, will make their home for the present with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Goss, at Lyndon.

The members of Juniper Branch Rebekah Lodge celebrated the 61st anniversary of the founding of the order Friday evening last in the Odd Fellows' Hall. Members of the Odd Fellows' lodge and their wives were invited. An address was delivered by the Rev. F. A. Weaver. Refreshments were served, and a social hour enjoyed.

The School of Agriculture sent an exhibit to the state fair last week, as they did to the St. Johnsbury fair. In both cases, this exhibit, together with that from Speedwell farms, attracted much attention and many encomiums.

The floor in Music Hall has been taken up and re-laid, making a great improvement for dancing. The base ball association had another dance there Saturday evening.

Mrs. Elbridge Gerry left Saturday for a few days' visit to friends in the vicinity of Boston. She will spend most of her time with a former schoolmate, Mrs. A. G. Bradish of Medford.

Mrs. Josephine Wilder is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Luella McClellan, who is now a resident of Manila, P. I. Mrs. McClellan is accompanied by her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. DuFresne, and their daughter, Miss Lorna DuFresne. Mr. DuFresne is a fine type of the Spanish gentleman and a lawyer in Manila. The party of four are on their way around the world, having traveled from Manila to Europe and then here. They will visit a sister in New York, a brother in Brooklyn, and one in Malden, proceeding homeward by way of Seattle, Wash. The sisters have not met for 40 years, since they were young women.

The Rev. F. A. Woodworth, exchanged pulpits Sunday with the Rev. F. B. Blodgett of Lyndon, who occupied the Methodist pulpit.

Mrs. Mary Pease was in Boston last week buying fall and winter millinery goods.

Mrs. Fred Stockwell went to Boston last week with her daughter, Miss Muriel, whom she wished to see located in her new work, studying music in the Carl Faelton Piano school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Knight took a brief trip last week, going to Boston, and then by boat to Portland, Me., and Eastport, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Parker have been spending two weeks in Boston.

The seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gregory, who has been a cripple from birth with a serious spinal trouble, has within a few days developed an alarming brain trouble and acute mania. It has seemed best to give him expert treatment, and his father took him to Waterbury last week for that purpose.

Isaac Gage has been having a serious time with blood poison in his foot.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Jamieson have been entertaining Mrs. Everett Hunt and two children from Newport. John Webster spent last week in Lowell, Mass.

Miss Anna Fowler has been taking a fortnight's vacation from her work in Silsby's store, which she spent at home.

Mrs. Ernest Martin has been quite sick with tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Selden Bickford of Barton have been recent guests of their aunt, Mrs. Porter Baldwin.

M. J. and B. R. Lyster motored over from Whitefield, N. H., last week.

Miss Bessie Hutchinson left home Friday for Hingham, Mass., where she has a good position as companion and housekeeper for a Mrs. Ripley.

Mrs. Carrie Peck Guthrie and daughter, Violet, visited her sister, Mrs. George Wheeler last week.

The Book Club held their semi-annual auction last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. E. J. Blodgett. The books sold at good prices, and the new books, for the coming six months, were distributed. After the business session the hostess served a charming dish supper and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed. One new member, Mrs. W. L. Guild, was admitted.

The Woman's Relief Corps served an excellent supper in the Grand Army hall Saturday evening, with vegetable hash and other good things of the season.

D. Paige was in Boston last week, accompanying his nephew, A. Forest Ranger, who was returning to his home in Providence.

Mrs. G. B. Allyn visited friends in Sherbrooke a few days last week.

Progressives Have a Flag Raising and Rally—Local Happenings

The progressives held a rally and flag raising here Thursday evening, the 19th. Dr. W. J. Aldrich, representative-elect from St. Johnsbury, and E. A. Cook holding the same position in Lyndon, spoke to a large audience at the church and Mr. Wilson from Lyndonville gave several campaign songs. Several were present from West Burke, Lyndonville and St. Johnsbury and enthusiasm ran high. A nice flag was flung to the breeze which was lustily cheered.

Several went to Sheffield Saturday evening to attend the grange meeting there.

Last Tuesday as Franklin Berry was going through a pasture he was attacked by a heifer, thrown down and badly hurt. Dr. Burke was called and prescribed for him. He is unable to go around but is doing as well as can be expected.

Bennett H. Curtis goes to Lewiston, Me., to enter Bates college for a college course.

A. F. Stoddard is a progressive farmer having built a large silo and purchased a new ensilage cutter to cut his corn for the silage.

Eugene Gentry who has lived on J. C. Lucia's farm the past two years is to move to West Burke to a tenement over Way's hardware store.

Harrison Orcutt visited friends at Newport the past week.

E. A. Blake has been appointed guardian in place of Charles Rogers, deceased, for Hazel Miles.

Your correspondent was one of the passengers on the train where the fatal accident occurred above St. Johnsbury Center, Sept. 12, being on the way to North Tunbridge to attend the Vermont Yearly meeting.

Notice was served upon the town last Friday by the Boston and Maine railroad citing it to appear at a hearing at South Barton, October 8, where a hearing is to be held in regard to abolishing a grade crossing near where the Charles Frost bridge once stood.

Two crossings near there, one in Barton and one in Sutton and both towns are cited to the hearing as both crossings are to be abolished.

The Ladies' Aid are to give a baked bean supper with other good eatables in their hall Friday evening, the 27th.

Rev. A. N. Chandler and some others are attending the Baptist State Convention at St. Johnsbury this week from Monday until Wednesday.

The next Grange meeting is to be held Thursday evening the 28th.

Carroll Lafoe has a position for the mail service weighing the mail on the train running from Newport to Springfield.

The 90 days in which to pay taxes to the town of Lyndonville and give the 5 per cent discount and cost of collection by the constable expires with Sept. 26.

The Grange expect to have a fair in the near future but the time is not yet decided upon.

EAST BURKE

WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.

Libel for Divorce
Frederick R. Smith vs. Caledonia County Court, December Term 1912.
Mabel M. Smith vs. A. D. 1912.

Whereas, Frederick R. Smith of Hardwick in the County of Caledonia, and State of Vermont, has filed in the office of the Clerk of Caledonia County Court, his Libel for Divorce, setting forth in substance, that on the 4th day of October, A. D. 1892, he was lawfully married to Mabel M. Smith, now of parts unknown without the State of Vermont, that he thereafter cohabited with the said libelee in the State of Vermont; that during cohabitation he on his part has faithfully kept the marriage covenant; that the said libelee treated petitioner with intolerable severity, by reason of which intolerable severity he was forced to leave the said libelee finally, and without just cause, deserted the libelee for three consecutive years; that she has children, the fruit of said marriage, viz. Dorothy L. and Marjory M. And praying that the bonds of matrimony between him and the said libelee be dissolved, and that he be granted a bill of divorce, and that he be decreed the custody of said children during their minority.

And it being made to appear, upon satisfactory proof by way of affidavit, that the libelee is without this State so that a citation cannot be served upon her, and that the libellant has made diligent inquiry and does not know where the libelee resides.

Therefore, it is ordered that notice of the pendency of said libel be given to said libelee by publication of the substance of the foregoing with this order, in the St. Johnsbury Caledonian, a newspaper published at St. Johnsbury, in the County of
